DISCRIMINATING LADIES.

Enjoy Using Herpelde on Account of its Distinctiveness.

The ladies who have used Newbro's Herpelde speak of it in the highest terms, for its quick effect in cleansing the scalp of dandruff and also for its excellence as a general hair-dressing. It makes the scalp feel fresh and it always keeps the hair clean and free from dandruff, as it destroys the germ that causes it. The same germ causes hair to fall out, and later baldness; in killing it, Herpelde stops falling hair and prevents baldness. It is also an ideal hair dressing, for it lends an aristocratic charm to the hair that is quite distinctive. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpelde Co., Detroit, Mich.

President Sends Letter to Mitchell.

President Roosevelt has again intervened as a peacemaker between the coal miners and operators, and as the result of a letter addressed by him to John Mitchell, president of the United Mineworkers of America, a national convention of the United Miners will be held March 15 to try to reach an agreement with the soft coal operators in the hope of averting the threatened strike of April 1 in the bituminous coal fields.

The President's letter and the announcement that the national convention would be called were made public in New York last night by Mr. Mitchell, after a long conference with Frank L. Robbins, president of the Pittsburgh Coal Company and chairman of the bituminous operators.

Also present at this conference were W. C. Perry, of the Southwestern Coal Association, and B. E. Bush, representing the soft coal interests allied with the Gould railroads.

The President's letter to Mr. Mitchell follows:

Washington, February 24.

Sir: I note with very great concern the failure of your last convention on the joint interest to agreement to come to a basis of settlement of the bituminous mining scale of wages. You in this business have enjoyed a great industrial peace for many years, thanks to the joint trade agreement that has resulted in the action of your successive conventions.

A strike such as is threatened on April 1 is a menace to the peace and general welfare of the country. I urge you to make a further effort to avoid such a calamity.

You and Mr. Robbins are joint chairmen of the trade agreement committee of the National Civic Federation, and it seems to me that this imposes additional duty upon you both and gives an additional reason why each of you should join in making a further effort.

Very respectfully,

THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

The conference did not adjourn until nearly 8 o'clock last night, when Mr. Mitchell announced that after the reading of President Roosevelt's letter it was agreed both by himself and the operators that the national convention should be called. The miners were in session recently at Indianapolis, but failed to reach an agreement with the operators. President Mitchell himself has been quoted as saying that, so far as he knew, there would certainly be a strike in the bituminous fields April 1.

Mr. Mitchell would not indicate what new propositions will be placed before the miners, but significance is attached to his statement that the operators at yesterday's conference agreed that the convention should be called. Concessions, maybe on both sides, will be offered, and President Roosevelt's interest in the situation will be held as an additional reason for bringing about a new agreement.

Mr. Mitchell yesterday endorsed the opinion that there will be no general strike of coal miners on April 1 next, which was given out Sunday night in Indianapolis by Vice President T. L. Lewis, of the United Mineworkers. President Mitchell was shown the vice president's statement, in which the latter said, in addition to the assertion there will be no general strike in the mining industry April 1, that operators will restore the reduction accepted by the miners two years ago, and perhaps more, and that an era of peace will be established for another period of years.

After hearing this statement President Mitchell said: "I guess that is right."

The Display of Riches.

The evils of money lust, the love of display and ostentation, gambling, divorce and the degradation of Sunday are roundly condemned in the Lenten charge of the Right Rev. Henry Y. Satterlee, Bishop of Washington, to the clergy and laity of his diocese. The charge was read in the churches at the services yesterday.

A strong appeal for simplicity and sincerity and actual accordance with the spirit of Christ prefaces the appeal of the bishop to his fellow-Christians. Men are valued now for what they possess, not for what they are, the charge avers, and a warning against the false and evil standard is given in eloquent terms. Covetousness has become the habit of the age.

"And what are those consequences?" asks the bishop. "Is not every man who strives to eclipse his neighbors by the magnificence of his dwelling or the splendor of his entertainments or the variety of his pleasures, thereby tempting those neighbors to become still more extravagant, and thus increasing the modern cost of living? Is not every woman who displays a costly jewel or puts on a gown to outshine those of other women adding fuel to that fierce flame of covetousness which is burning up the holier nature of those who are made in the image of God?"

The New Cough Syrup—the one that sets as a mild cathartic on the bowels—is Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. It expels all cold from the system, cuts the phlegm out of the throat, strengthens the mucous membranes of the bronchial tubes, and relieves croup, whooping cough, etc. Children love it. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King Street.

DRY GOODS

"And is it not the bounden duty of every follower of Christ in this day to do all in his or her power to cast out that demon of covetousness by which American hearts are now possessed, that the men and women about us may 'come to themselves,' be clothed in their right mind and see things as they really are?"

Gambling is condemned in the same round terms and there is no difficulty in understanding the bishop means the forms of gambling—bridge and the like—which have become prevalent in society and in some homes of some cities have developed into a mania.

The sanctity of the marriage tie, the evils of divorce, the gradually lessening respect and reverence for the family, are made the subject of another strong exhortation to the diocese.

"I appeal to the Christians of this diocese to stand firm here," runs the charge. "Our Lord said that His followers were to be the leaders of the world, not to be led by it. If ever the commonwealth needed the honest, straightforward example of Christian men and women, it is in meeting this issue. The prevalence of divorce has already brought innumerable evils in its train."

"Much of the purity and refinement of American life has gone. The old reverence for the marriage tie has gone. The old chivalric reverence for womanhood has gone. The old intense American love for home and home life has gone. Our young girls are reading books and discussing marriage and divorce in a way that would have brought the blush of shame to their grandmother's cheeks and every Christian who condones and excuses prevalent ideas regarding divorce is personally responsible for this state of things in the sight of God."

Lent begins Wednesday, and the charge is issued in contemplation of Ash Wednesday services. Bishop Satterlee's words were listened to with deepest interest, by large congregations and in many churches.

A Mystery Solved.

"How to keep off periodic attacks of biliousness and habitual constipation was a mystery that Dr. King's New Life Pills solved for me," writes John N. Pleasant, of Magnolia, Ind. The only pills that are guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction to everybody or money refunded. Only 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Mother's Favorite.
